ALUMNI NEWS

Robert and Marie (Smith) Mills and their family spent the day at Barium recently. Their daughter, Helen Patricia, was married on June 8th at Providence Methodist Church, Route 4, Salisbury.

Earl Adams was married on June 16th at the Presbyterian Church in Thomasville to Anne McIver Jester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David McIver Jester of Thomasville. Howard Beshears of Norfolk was one of the ushers. Earl graduated from Catawba College last year and is now employed by Burlington Industries in Wadesboro where they now live.

Phoebe Cochran has returned to Mitchell College after working at the S & W in Charlotte this summer. Edna Baucom has returned to A.S.T.C. and Louise Bradshaw to Montreat College.

Sidney Archbell, his wife and daughter, Sidney, were visitors on the campus. They live in Elizabeth City and Sidney travels for a Furniture Company.

Harry East died at Oteen Hospital on June 23rd and was buried in the National Cemetery at Salisbury. He had been a patient at Oteen for the past two years.

George Landrum made a short visit to Barium. He is travelling out of New York for a clothing firm and has Virginia as his territory.

Bobby Fry who is on the USS Wallace L. Lind was a visitor on the campus. His home port is Norfolk.

Jimmy Campbell is in the Air Force and is stationed at Lackland Air Force Base.

Ernest Austin has been transferred to Fort Knox, Ky. Ralph Joyner to Ohio and Charles Creech to Ft. Bragg. All of these boys spent a few days at Barium before going to their new posts.

B. A. and Mary Ann (McCormick) Cox and their family have moved to Dade City, Fla.

Roland Gant, his wife and two daughters were visitors on the campus. They live in San Francisco.

Born to Marjorie and Joe Ben Gibbs on August 14th, a daughter Cynthia Dianne.

Born to Gene and Barbara (McCall) Brooks at Winston-Salem on

THE NEW FAMILY CAR

New Bus Bought By Special Gift

The campus is excited and thrilled over the new bus. The long winter rides and waits on the highway during the breakdowns of last year made the coming of the new bus all the more wonderful.

For long years the children had been making their trips in the second-hand bus that was too small to carry the group and too worn out to make sure that they would get home. The new bus will seat forty-one and will be large enough for the teams to travel and the groups to make their trips to Statesville and to the various churches and places where they visit. With a family between two and three hundred it takes a good-sized family car.

The expense of the bus was from a special gift made during last year. Thus, once again the evidence of special provision for the boys and girls of this Home is made manifest in that at the moment of almost desperation the money to meet the need came from sources unexpected.

THE SCHOOL ROOM CALLS CHILDREN IN

Walks of the campus are alive with children "hurrying" to schoolrooms. Little girls with their bows and curls and little boys with shining faces and brushed hair begin this new and wonderful thing of education, as they begin the first grade. The second and third graders are beginning to find new tools and new books and get very much excited about their big new Arithmetic book. The older ones, carrying along a baseball bat and a glove, a football or a dodge-ball, have whatever books have been forced on them as they left their cottages and are giving their primary thought to things other than the contents of those school books.

The teachers are quite well aware of the fact that it wil take approximately thirty days to replace the thoughts of the swimming hole, the pickings of the blackberry patch, the riding of the farm trucks, and the days spent mending fences in the five-mile pasture, with ideas of language, geography, arithmetic, and spelling.

The principal, R. G. Calhoun, has an excellent staff for the process which is committed to them . . . Mrs. A. M. Calhoun, Miss Eleanor Miller, Mrs. O. D. Durham, Miss Faye Stevenson, Miss Sadie Brandon, Miss Kathryn Troutman, Mrs. Frances Moore, Miss Charlotte Calhoun, Mrs. Natalyn Sherrill, Mrs. Hugh McLean, Mr. A. M. Calhoun, and Miss Reba Thompson are the teachers who will be guiding the affairs of the first through the eighth grades and of the junior and senior classes in high school. The freshmen and sophomores of the Home are riding the County School bus and attending the high school at Troutman.

Football Season Opens With Lexington

The opening of school reduced the football practices to one a day. The light charges of Coach R. G. Calhoun are busy trying to find some way for a 140-pounder to stop a 180-pounder on defense and to figure out how a very light squad will be able to make those touchdowns over the heavy opponents. The spirit is high and the boys are working in earnest to get ready for the opening game with Lexington on the last Friday in September. The heavyweight of the squad this year is 165, with the rest of the team ranging from 120 up.

Following is the season's schedule.

NEWS FROM THE COTTAGES

Rumple Hall

Hi Folks—

Here we are again with our Summer news.

We have five members of our cottage attending school at Troutman. Each day they get on the school bus in front of our cottage and ride to school. We are enjoying this new experience.

This year, instead of getting younger girls at our cottage, we got some older additions. We are happy to have them. Now that we have some girls taking Home Ec., three of them, Carol Moore, Nancy Farris, and Edna Evans, made some cinnamon rolls for the rest of the girls. This turned out to be a messy job but they tasted o.k.

The Pioneers had a square dance last Friday night and all seemed to enjoy it a lot.

Our hall was divided into half and we were lucky to get to keep our lovely playroom. The older girls who came back to Rumple Hall found quite a change. We have a new kitchen sink and stove and are enjoying them very much.

Now, since school has started, most of our time after supper is spent studying. We hope to get some good reports because of this. We have taken as our devotional project this year learning the Shorter Catechism. We hope that all of our girls will have a Bible before the year is over.

Howard Cottage

Hi, here we are again. Now that school has started we are keeping pretty busy. Some of us are glad school has started and some are not.

This is the month that we always go to the Fair and we are really looking forward to that.

Since last month we have some girls who came over from other cottages to live with us. They are Nancy Finley, Mary Della Hyde, Linda Byrd, Mary Ann McBennett, Barbara Johnson, and Deanna Kiser. We have one new girl and her name is Lou Anna Bridgers. She is

YOU ARE INVITED

All the former students and their friends are urged to attend the Homecoming festivities which will take place on the campus at Barium Springs on October 5th. The Alumni will meet, a program will be presented by the school, lunch will be served, and the Tornadoes will meet the Railroaders from Spencer on Sloan Field in the afternoon.

WE HAVE FIVE COPIES

We have on hand five copies of the film "When the Bough Breaks." This is the story of Barium Springs in sixteen mm film with sound and color. Those who have seen it have been thoroughly delighted with this twenty-three minute showing of Barium Springs. Send your request now for an early booking.

FROM LITTLE JOE'S CHURCH

REV. ROBERT R. COLLINS, Minister

Most of us enjoy surprises and when I returned from my vacation at the end of July a good one awaited me. The president of our Senior High Fellowship told me that plans were underway to have a "Back to School with Christ" Rally for our community. Six youth groups from the churches in the vicinity of Troutman and Barium Springs wanted to sponsor it with the idea of emphasizing the importance of one's Christian faith in school, as well as in all other walks of life. "What do you think of it?", my council leader wanted to know. I assured him that it sounded like a splendid move and that I would join the other ministers in supporting the young people with their program. With very little help required from the ministers the Rally went off on schedule the Sunday night prior to the opening of our schools. Over two hundred young people were in attendance for a picnic supper, a singspiration, a worship service and sermon. Apparently it meant a great deal to those who participated in it, for even after the opening of school the theme of "Back to School with Christ" was being discussed in the corridors and auditorium of the high school.

All of this is by way of saying that we don't have to wait for "Rally Day" to move into high gear in our program of Christian education and witnessing. It is especially gratifying when the youth of the community see a need and an opportunity for expressing their Christian faith and move ahead on their own. "Under the Steeple" we are thankful to God for the leadership and enthusiasm which our young people are constantly giving to the church and community. And we are reminded anew of the real meaning of the church, so well expressed in this little poem which appeared some years ago in our Sunday School literature.

THE CHURCH

We say "the church" and speak the words in thoughtful voice and low;
I wonder what we feel and think—I wonder if we know
That stone and brick and stately spire and massive Gothic door
Are not "the church" in fullest sense; "the church" is something more,
Not just the sacred house of God, though hallowed from above.
"The church" is all the countless folk who fellowship in love—
The love of Christ and love of men—the men of ev'ry race
Who name His name and own His cause and know God's wondrous grace.

New Plan Adopted For Baby Cottage

Seven little pre-school girls last year lived on the second floor of the Baby Cottage and ten little boys lived downstairs. After careful study of the campus life, some changes were agreed upon. The little girls who were completely oriented to the life of the campus and who, in many instances, had sisters in other cottages were moved to the cottages with the other children so that there was more nearly a family life from the small child to the larger child. These little ladies seem to be very happy in their new cottages and in their new family relationships.

In the boys' group all but four were entering school, so the first-graders were moved to other cottages. The in-coming pre-school boys and girls will live on the first floor. Mrs. Thaggard, the housemother, reports that the little boys and girls are very much thrilled with each other, and that the new arrangement seems to be most happy and has the possibility of real service to these children.

See you next month.

Sanford

Hi Folks—

Here we are again bringing you the news from the Sanford girls. Since you have heard from us we have received some new girls into our family as follows: Phoebe Brumley who is our youngest member—she is four years old; Sylvia Bush, Brenda Blake, Susie Blackburn, Mary Jane Bolton, and Betty Lou Rutledge.

We have started back to school now and three of our girls are going to Troutman High School; they are Audrey Waters, Betty Mitchell, and Judy Bolton. They seem to be liking it real well.

We are now looking forward to football and hoping that we will win most of our games.

BOYS PREPARE CATTLE FOR FAIR

The dairy boys under the supervision of Mr. Arthur Hanks are busy getting ready for the showing of their animals in the 4-H group and also in the County and, hopefully, in the State Fair.

Scrub brushes, clippers and nail files are getting a good work-out as these boys clip their calves, polish their horns and hoofs, and teach them to walk. Each boy sees his animal through the gentle shades of an anticipated Blue Ribbon won at the Fair. Such winnings will not be new, for each year the dairy boys bring in from their showings a small amount of prize money and the top ribbons for excellence.

FISCAL YEAR WILL END SEPTEMBER 30

The Board of Regents in its May meeting asked the Executive Committee to study the proposed change of the fiscal year. The committee in its study found that there were two primary considerations. One was that the Duke Endowment has made the change to end the fiscal year September 30th, and since the Home receives some funds from this Endowment, and since a detailed annual report is required, it was deemed wise to change the year of the Home to conform to that of the Duke Endowment. Another item which pleased the committee very much was that the services of auditors are secured much more readily and at less expense at the later season than in the earlier months of the calendar year. Therefore, the fiscal year of The Presbyterian Orphans' Home at Barium Springs will begin October 1st, 1956, and end September 30th, 1957, thus effecting a more satisfactory and economical pattern of operation for the Home's business office.

THIRTY YEAR REVIEW

(From the Duke Endowment Yearbook)

The thirtieth consecutive year of service to the child caring institutions in the Carolinas was completed at the close of the calendar year 1954. It is felt that a brief review of the work of the Orphan Section of The Duke Endowment and of the assisted institutions during this thirty year period will be interesting and proper at this time.

The terms of the Trust Indenture establishing The Duke Endowment which was signed by James B. Duke on December 11, 1924 state that the orphanages and child caring institutions in the two Carolinas were to receive ten per cent of the income from this fund for the care of orphan and half orphan children, without respect to race or creed. The Trust Indenture directs the Trustees in the administration of this fund to assist properly operated institutions that are not operated for private gain and a liberal interpretation of the term "properly operated" has been given inasmuch as practically every child caring institution in the Carolinas has been asssited. It is felt that this policy has been a sound one as it has enabled a few institutions with low standards the additional financial assistance with which to raise their standards. Also, the support by the Trustees of The Duke Endowment has encouraged other outside assistance to the institutions and this assistance has stimulated improvements in the standard of service throughout the years.

The Trustees of The Duke Endowment in the beginning of this week assisted the child caring institutions in the care of orphan and half orphan children actually in residence in institutions. In recent years, however, since 1944 assistance has been given for orphan and half orphan children cared for in foster homes under institution supervision on the same basis as children in institutions. Furthermore, in 1947 through 1949 the Trustees encouraged this type of care by assisting three institutions — Baptist Orphanage of North Carolina, Thomasville, North Carolina; Presbyterian Orphans' Home, Barium Springs, North Carolina; and Connie Maxwell Children's Home, Greenwood, South Carolina—in a special way to extend this type of service to children. The program was set up to subsidize case work service at each of these three institutions on a three-year basis, with The Duke Endowment's contribution being on a withdrawing basis.

At the Children's Home Society of North Carolina, Greensboro, North Carolina, the Trustees of The Duke Endowment have another significant experiment under way and are subsidizing, at the request of the Directors of the Children's Home Society, a special program which places for adoption older orphan and half orphan children now in institutions in North Carolina. This program began in 1950 and was for a three-year period but at the end of the original period it was learned that sufficient time for the development of the program had not been allowed and assistance has been extended on a year to year basis since that time. During the four years since the beginning of this program and to the end of 1954 a total of 42 older children have been placed for adoption from North Carolina institutions by this organization and of this number 17 were orphan or half orphan. Of the total children placed, 17 have been legally adopted. In addition to those placed in adoptive homes, 13 children were removed from institutions and returned to relatives through this program.

The information shown below indicates comparisons for 1925 and 1954 unless otherwise indicated. However, some of the information was not obtained for 1925 and in that case the figures for 1926 or other valuable years have been used.

Institutions Assisted in 1925 numbered 39 of which 26 were in North Carolina and 13 in South Carolina Thirty-nine institutions were assisted in 1954, including 27 in North Carolina and 12 in South Carolina. Of the original 39 assisted institutions in 1925, 30 were still in operation and assisted in 1954. Fourteen institutions have closed, one still in operation did not apply in 1954, and 15 opened during the thirty year period, 1925-1954 inclusive. As will be seen, the number of institutions assisted remains the same as in 1925. In the year 1935, 47 institutions were assisted, which was the largest number assisted in any one year during the period.

Bed Capacity at 39 institutions on December 31, 1925 was 5,799. There were 5,572 beds in 39 institutions on December 31, 1954, indicating a decrease of 227 beds or 3.9 per cent for the thirty year period. It is interesting to note that there has been little variation in the bed occupancy of the assisted institutions during the period—87.0 per cent occupancy in 1925 and 85.0 per cent in 1954.

Children Cared for in 39 assisted institutions in 1925 totaled 5,983, with 4,767 or 79.7 per cent being either orphan or half orphan children. In 1954 there were 5,947 children cared for in the 39 assisted institutions and of this number 3,185 or 53.6 per cent were either orphan or half orphan. The ratio of children cared for to population was one to 759 in 1925 and one to 1,091 in 1954.

Admissions numbered 994 in 39 institutions in 1925. There were 1,211 admissions in 39 institutions in 1954 which represented an increase of 21.8 per cent in the number of admissions in 1954 as compared with 1925. The ratio of admissions to population was one to 4,565 in 1925 and one to 5,358 in 1954.

Discharges numbered 878 in 1925 and there were 5,075 children in the 39 assisted institutions on December 31, 1925. The number of discharges in 1954 was 1,219 and on December 31, 1954 there were 4,728 children in the 39 institutions. The ratio of discharges to population was one to 5,168 in 1925 and one to 5,322 in 1954. It is noted that the number of discharges in 1954 was 38.8 per cent more than the number of discharges in 1925.

Days of Care. A total of 58,119,075 days of care to needy children was given by the assisted institutions during the thirty year period which was an average of 1,937,303 days each year. The days of care totaled 1,841,111 at 39 assisted institutions in 1925, with the days of orphan and half orphan children amounting to 1,640,184 or 89.0 per cent of the total days of care. The days of care of children with both parents living in 1925 numbered 200,927 and made up only 11.0 per cent of the total. There were 1,720,128 days of care rendered by 39 institutions in 1954 with 970,922 days or 56.4 per cent being for orphan and half orphan children, and 749,206 days or 43.6 per cent for children with both parents living. The most significant change noted in the work of the child caring institutions is the increase in the days of care rendered children with both parents living, from 11.0 per cent of the total in 1925 to 43.6 per cent in 1954. There was a decrease of 6.6 per cent in the total days of care in 1954 as compared with 1925.

Employees at 41 institutions in 1926 numbered 748 and provided an average of one employee for 6.9 children based on the average number of children per day. There were 998 persons employed in 1954 in 39 institutions, giving an average of one employee to 5.0 children for the year.

Schools. A total of 5,963 children were enrolled during the 1933-34 school term in schools, of which total 1,639 or 27.5 per cent attended public schools away from the institutions and 4,324 or 72.5 per cent were in schools maintained at the institutions. During the 1953-54 school term a total of 4,893 children were enrolled and 2,266 or 46.3 per cent of them were in public schools away from the institutions and 2,627 or 53.7 per cent in schools maintained at the institutions. The enrollment in public schools of children from institutions has increased 38.3 per cent during the period covered.

Mothers' Aid and Foster Home Care. In 1926 at five institutions a total of 110 mothers and 483 children were assisted in mothers' aid programs. Two institutions assisted 38 mothers and 113 children in 1954 in such programs. There were 337 children cared for in 1926 in foster care programs under the direct or indirect supervision of six institutions. Four institutions in 1954 were providing direct service to 182 children in foster homes with the Trustees of The Duke Endowment providing assistance for 16,578 days of care of orphan and half orphan children in such homes on the same basis as for care in institutions. Since 1944, the year in which the Trustees of The Duke Endowment started assisting institutions with the care of orphan and half orphan children in foster homes, assistance has been provided for a total of 172,537 days of care of orphan and half orphan children in foster homes under institution supervision.

A total of 11,172 acres of land were owned by the 41 assisted institutions in 1926. In 1954 the 39 institutions owned 17,001 acres of land, which was an increase of 5,829 acres or 52.2 per cent. In 1926 there were a total of 2,534 acres or 23.0 per cent under cultivation; in 1954, 5,208 acres or 30.6 per cent were under cultivation.
